

Award Nomination

Director of the Year

Description

The South Carolina Emergency Management Association's Director of the Year is given to a county emergency management director for outstanding service in emergency management.

Eligibility

To be considered for Director of the Year an individual must meet the following criteria:

- Be the director of a county emergency management organization in South Carolina, either paid or volunteer.
- Held the director position for at least four (4) years.
- Be a member in good standing with the South Carolina Emergency Management Association for at least two (2) years.
- Demonstrated leadership qualities that enhance the emergency management capabilities of his/her community in which he/she serves.