

Award Nomination

Volunteer/Citizen of the Year

Description

The South Carolina Emergency Management Association's Volunteer/Citizen of the Year is given to an individual who does not have an official role in emergency management.

Eligibility

To be considered for Volunteer/Citizen of the Year an individual must meet the following criteria:

- Promotes and supports emergency management at the local or state level.
- Involved in disaster preparedness, mitigation, response, or recovery support at the local or state level.
- Does not have a professional capacity as an emergency manager.