

Award Nomination

Agency of the Year

Description

The South Carolina Emergency Management Association's Agency of the Year is given to a county emergency management agency that made a significant improvement(s) or difference(s) in its community to mitigate, prepare for, respond to, or recover from a disaster or emergency.

Eligibility

To be considered for Agency of the Year an agency must meet the following criteria:

- Be a designated emergency management organization.
- Be in good standing with the South Carolina Emergency Management Association.
- Be comprised of at least one (1) individual who has been a SCEMA member for at least two (2) years.
- Made a significant improvement or difference within their community within the realm of emergency management.