

Constitution and Bylaws

ARTICLE I

IDENTITY

Section 1. The name of this organization is the “South Carolina Emergency Management Association,” hereafter referred to as “SCEMA” or the “Association.”

ARTICLE II

MISSION

Section 1. The mission of this Association shall be to advocate for, promote, and represent the field of emergency management in order to enhance the safety of all citizens of and visitors to the State of South Carolina.

This mission will be achieved through the following objectives:

1. Provide a platform to enhance comprehensive emergency management programs within the State of South Carolina.
2. Promote unity among members dedicated to mitigating, preparing for, responding to, and recovering from all hazards.
3. Promote professional development within the emergency management community.
4. Foster positive relationships among federal, state, and local governmental agencies, private industry, and volunteer organizations.
5. Serve as a clearinghouse for the sharing of ideas, recommendations, and lessons learned between our members.
6. Act in concert with and in a professional advisory capacity to other organizations regarding emergency management in South Carolina.

ARTICLE III

ORGANIZATION STRUCTURE

Section 1. The governing body of this Association shall be the general membership when assembled at membership and special meetings, whose purpose shall be to conduct business of the Association.

Section 2. Between membership and special meetings, the governing authority shall be vested in an Executive Committee, which shall report any and all actions to the general membership at the next meeting.

ARTICLE IV
MEMBERSHIP

- Section 1. Membership in this association shall be by payment of an annual membership fee. Fee amount(s) are subject to change annually by vote of the Association following the recommendation of the Executive Committee.
- Section 2. No person shall be ineligible for membership by reason of race, creed, color, gender, sexual orientation, or religion.
- Section 3. There shall be four types of membership in the association:
1. Individual Member: All persons actively engaged in an emergency management program or individuals who may have a direct or indirect role or responsibility in the emergency management field shall be eligible for individual membership.
 2. Corporate Member: All public or private companies, government agencies, or not-for-profit organizations that may have a direct or indirect interest in the emergency management field shall be eligible for corporate membership. A Corporate Membership shall provide one (1) designee from the qualifying entity access to member benefits. This designee shall be identified annually at membership renewal.
 3. Lifetime Member: As a sign of appreciation for distinguished service with a minimum of five (5) active years in the Association, upon retirement from the emergency management profession and by an affirmative vote of the majority of its membership present, lifetime membership may be conferred on a retired member of the Association and the member so honored shall continue as an individual member entitled to all the privileges and incidents thereto but shall no longer be required to pay dues.
 4. Honorary Member: Honorary membership may be conferred upon individuals who have made a significant contribution to the field of emergency management or during a disaster but are not employed in emergency management. No more than two (2) honorary memberships may be conferred in a fiscal year. Honorary members shall not have voting privileges, nor shall they be allowed to hold elected office within the Association or serve on any committees of the Association.
- Section 4. Revocation of Membership
1. Any member may have their membership revoked for cause. Causes for revocation include, but are not limited to:

- a. Does not meet the qualifications for membership in the Association.
 - b. Conduct unbecoming of a member of the Association.
2. The member in question shall receive written notice of the charges made against them by the Association membership or Executive Committee and afforded not less than fifteen (15) days after receipt of said charges to reply in writing to the Executive Committee. A simple majority vote of the Executive Committee is required for revocation.
3. Any member whose membership has been revoked by the Executive Committee may appeal the revocation to the membership at the next quarterly meeting. The revocation may be overturned at this meeting by a two-thirds (2/3) majority vote of the Association.
4. An individual whose membership has previously been revoked may be reinstated by a two-thirds (2/3) majority vote of the Association at a regular quarterly meeting, granted that a period of not less than two (2) years has passed since revocation.

ARTICLE V
VOTING RIGHTS OF MEMBERS

- Section 1. Each Individual, Corporate, and Lifetime Member of the Association shall be considered a voting member. Honorary Members shall not be considered voting members.
- Section 2. Members may appoint a delegate to vote in their absence provided such delegate is a voting member of the Association. A letter of proxy must be presented by the delegate at the meeting to ensure that each recognized member will be able to cast only one vote.
- Section 3. A quorum shall consist of thirty-three percent (33%) of the eligible voting members of the Association.
- Section 4. All votes put before the Association membership except changes to the Constitution and Bylaws or revocation of membership will be decided by a simple majority. A simple majority is defined as fifty percent (50%) plus one vote of votes cast when a quorum is present.
- Section 5. Changes to the Constitution and Bylaws and revocation of membership requires a two-thirds (2/3) majority vote. A two-thirds (2/3) majority vote is defined as two-thirds (2/3) of all votes cast when a quorum is present.

ARTICLE VI OFFICERS

Section 1. The elected officers of the Association shall be: President, President-Elect, Treasurer, and Secretary. The immediate Past President, if still an active member, shall also be an officer.

Section 2. Term of Office:

1. The term of each office for all officers shall be for a period of two (2) years and shall commence immediately following the fourth quarter meeting during the year of election.
2. The President, President-Elect, and Treasurer shall take office in odd-numbered years.
3. The Secretary shall take office in even-numbered years.
4. Upon expiration of the term of President, the President-Elect shall automatically assume the role of President.
5. No individual may serve more than six (6) consecutive years as a member of the executive committee through any combination of offices held. Following the sixth (6th) year of service, the individual is not eligible to seek office for one (1) year.

Section 3. Qualifications:

1. No person shall hold any office in the Association unless qualified as an Individual Member of the Association as defined in Article IV, Section 3 of these bylaws.
2. No person shall hold any office in the Association unless that person has been a member of the Association for not less than three (3) years.
3. No person shall hold the office of President or President-Elect of the Association unless qualified as an Individual Member of the Association as defined in Article IV, Section 3 of these bylaws and:
 - a. Is a full-time employee working in the emergency management profession whose primary job function is that of an emergency management practitioner.
 - b. Has been a member of the Association for not less than five (5) years.
 - c. Currently holds the designation of "South Carolina Certified Emergency Manager."
4. Prior to being placed on the ballot for any Association office, the individual must guarantee in writing that they have the full backing of the governing body of their jurisdiction or employer with a letter from their governing body stating such.

Section 4. Nomination of Officers

1. The Nominating Committee shall solicit nominations for offices due to be elected during the current year and shall present a list of nominees to the Association during the second quarterly meeting of each year.
2. Nominations for office may be made from the floor during either the second or third quarterly meeting, provided that the nominated individual meets the qualifications set forth in these bylaws and that the nomination is made by a voting member of the Association. A candidate may not self-nominate from the floor.
3. Any candidate nominated from the floor must guarantee in writing that they have the full backing of the governing body of their jurisdiction or employer with a letter from their governing body stating such within 60 days pursuant to Article VI, Section 3, Subsection 4.
4. If the nomination occurs during the third quarterly meeting and the individual is elected but fails to produce the required letter within 60 days, the candidate shall forfeit the office to the recipient of the next highest number of votes who has successfully produced a letter of support.

Section 5. Election of Officers:

1. Officers shall be voted on at the third quarterly meeting of each year.
2. All elections shall be presided over by the Chair of the Nominating Committee or their designee.
3. In all elections where more than one person is the candidate for an office, a secret ballot shall be required. In all elections where only one person is the candidate for office, voting may occur via yeas and nays at the discretion of the Chair of the Nominating Committee or their designee.
4. In the event that more than one person is nominated for an office, a simple majority of the votes cast shall be required for election. All ballots shall be counted and verified by not less than two members of the Nominating Committee.
5. If no candidate receives a simple majority of the votes on the first ballot, votes shall be cast on another ballot for the two candidates receiving the highest number of votes on the first ballot. In the event of a tie affecting the final election, another ballot shall be taken. If a tie still exists following the third ballot, the election shall be decided by a vote of all five members of the Executive Committee.

Section 6. Vacancies:

Whenever a vacancy occurs in any office of the Association by death, resignation, removal, or any other cause, it shall be filled in the following manner:

1. Should the vacancy be to the incumbent President, the President-Elect shall immediately assume the duties of the President and will serve for the remainder of the current term plus the term in which the President-Elect would have normally served as President.
2. Should the vacancy be to the incumbent President-Elect, this office shall be filled by election at the next quarterly meeting.
3. Should the vacancy be to either the incumbent Secretary or the incumbent Treasurer, the President shall appoint an individual member of the Association to fulfill the remainder of the term.

Section 7. Removal from Office

1. Any elected officer may be removed from office for cause. Causes for removal include, but are not limited to:
 - a. No longer meets the qualifications of the office.
 - b. Conduct unbecoming of an officer of the Association.
2. The officer in question shall receive written notice of the charges made against them by the Association membership or Executive Committee and afforded not less than fifteen (15) days after receipt of said charges to reply in writing to the Executive Committee. A simple majority vote of the Executive Committee, excluding the officer in question, is required for removal.
3. Any officer who has been removed by the Executive Committee may appeal the removal to the membership at the next quarterly meeting. The removal may be overturned at this meeting by a two-thirds (2/3) majority vote of the Association.
